Says Thanks For Fire Prevention Publicity

Appomattox Fire Warden David M. Smith has received an official letter of thanks from Ed Rogers, head of information and education for the Virginia Division of Forestry, Charlottesville. The reason? Rogers says that this county's program of fire prevention has been greatly helped by a continuing program of publicity through the county newspaper (the TIMES-VIRGINIAN.) And Smith says he has a great county in which to work — that citizens really turn out to help fight forest fires.

Gladstone

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, of Lynchburg, visited during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Higginbotham.
